PRESS RELEASE

MECA Art Educators Show

DOVER, NH
April 2008

The Galleries at One Washington Center will present a group show featuring artists and educators from the Maine College of Art Post-Baccalaureate Art Education program. These artists will be graduating from MECA in June and will be certified to teach art in grades K through 12. The philosophy behind this 10 month intensive program emphasizes the importance of the educator being an artist himself.

This group show will feature a range of work from illustrative paintings to ceramic sculpture. The traditional medium of silkscreen will be seen in an entirely new light through the eyes of Erik Ackerson who captures unsettling images of pop icons in 3D. Visitors to the gallery will don 3D glasses and watch in amazement as the characters spring off of the paper.

The show features MECA students Eric Ackerson, Simon Adams, Leah Beane, Nick Ellard, Katy Hughes, David Shenett and Samuel Wustner. Dr. Michelle Zelkowitz, director of the art education program, will also display her digital photos.

The show runs from April 6th through May 2nd. The opening reception will be held Friday April 10th from 5-7 PM. This event is free and open to the public.

The Galleries at One Washington Center are located on the 3rd floor of the Picker Building in Dover, NH.

Gallery Hours: 9am-5 pm M-F, also by appointment
